

Institutional Code of Conduct for Education loans

Emmaus Bible College

Introduction

Iowa Code Section 261F.2, Sections 487(a)(25)(A) and 487(e) of Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA), and federal regulations contained in 34 CFR 668.14(b)(27), and 34 CFR 601.21 require Emmaus Bible College (referred to throughout this document as “the institution”) to develop, administer, and enforce a Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct sets forth standards for business relationships between colleges and universities, their affiliated organizations and entities, private entities that make or hold education loans (referred to throughout this document as “lender”), and guarantors of loans made under the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP). A private education loan is any loan that is not made under Title IV of the HEA and is issued to a borrower expressly for postsecondary education expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the institution that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the lender. A private loan secured by a dwelling or an extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan (e.g., a home equity line of credit, or open line of credit tied to a Certificate of Deposit) is not considered a private education loan.

Iowa Code Section 261.F1(10)

All of the following individuals or entities associated with the institution must comply with this code of conduct governing education loan activities:

- An employee
- A contract employee
- A director or officer
- A trustee
- An agent – including an “institution-affiliated organization” (see below), booster club, or other organization directly or indirectly associated with or authorized by the institution or
- an employee of the institution
- An institution-affiliated organization is an organization that is directly or indirectly affiliated with us and includes, but is not limited to, an alumni, athletic, social, academic, or professional organization.

Iowa Code Sections 261F.2(1) and 261F.1(2) and (3); 34 CFR 601.2 definition of institution-affiliated organization

Emmaus Bible College does not and has not established a Preferred Lender List (PLL) for Private Education Loans. In addition, Emmaus does not and has not established a preferred lender arrangement.

Conduct under the following code is adhered to but is done in the absence of a PLL or preferred lender arrangement. In addition, the Code of Conduct is listed on our web site.

Distribution Requirements

This code of conduct must be published prominently on our Internet site.

Iowa Code Section 261F.2(1)(b) ; 34 CFR 601.21(a)(2)(ii)

If an institution-affiliated organization (see above) participates in a preferred lender arrangement*, and that organization has a Web site, our Code of Conduct must be published on the institution-affiliated organization's Web site.

34 CFR 601.21(b)(2)

At least annually, the institution's officers, employees, and agents who have responsibilities for education loans must be informed of the provisions of this code of conduct. An institution-affiliated organization (see above) that participates in a preferred lender arrangement* must notify its officers, employees, and agents who have responsibilities for education loans of the provisions of this Code of Conduct at least annually.

Counseling materials that the institution accepts from a lender or guarantor must disclose the identity of the entity that assisted in preparing or providing the materials, and must not be used to promote the lender's or guarantor's education loan or other products. The food and refreshment sponsored by the lender or guarantor must be offered to all who attend the training session or conference. Our employees and agents may attend a lender- or guarantor-sponsored reception for which food and refreshments are provided, so long as the reception is a general gathering that is held in conjunction with a training session or conference and is open to all attendees. In other words, the cost per person for the sponsored event must not exceed the cost that would be incurred by the prudent person under the circumstances at the time the decision was made to incur the cost. The burden of proof will be, in part, on event managers to show that costs are consistent with the normal per-person cost of the event.

November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61981

Impact on Our Cohort Default Rate

If an owner, agent, contractor, employee, or other entity or individual affiliated with the institution makes a payment to prevent default on a Stafford loan, or a Consolidation loan that repaid a Stafford loan, during the period for which our cohort default rate is calculated, that loan is considered to be in default and counts against our cohort default rate notwithstanding the payment.

Iowa Code Section 261F.3(7)(b); 34 CFR 668.183(c)(1)(iii); USDE Cohort Default Rate Guide, Chapter 2, p. 2-1.9

Preferred Lender Arrangements

Definition

A preferred lender arrangement is an arrangement or agreement between the institution or an institution-affiliated organization* and a lender that provides education loans to our students and their families in which we or our affiliated organization recommends, promotes, or endorses the lender's education loan product.

There are two conditions that must be met in order for a preferred lender arrangement to exist between a lender and this institution or an institution-affiliated organization*:

- A lender provides or issues education loans to our students or their families, and
- We, or an institution-affiliated organization*, recommends, promotes, or endorses the lender's education loan products.

A preferred lender arrangement does not require a written or verbal agreement, nor is a preferred lender arrangement confined to only cases in which the lender is included on a preferred lender list.

Iowa Code Section 261F.1(8); 34 CFR 601.2; Federal Register dated July 28, 2009, p. 37436; Federal Register dated October 28, 2009, p. 55630

A preferred lender arrangement does not include any of the following:

- Federal Direct loans
- Federal Perkins loans

Iowa Code Section 261F.1(8)

The identity of any private lender with whom the institution or an institution-affiliated organization* have a preferred lender arrangement will be displayed on all information and documentation related to the lender's loans.

34 CFR 601.12(b)

For any year in which the institution has a preferred lender arrangement, we will annually compile and make available for students attending the institution and their families a list of the specific education loan lenders that the institution recommends, promotes, or endorses.

34 CFR 668.14(b)(28)

Preferred Lender Lists

(Applicable to the institution, an any institution-affiliated organization*, that has a preferred lender arrangement for education loans.)

A preferred lender list (PLL) is a list of education loan lenders which the institution recommends, promotes, or endorses, and with which we have a preferred lending arrangement.

Impermissible Activities

The institution's PLL will not include less than three unaffiliated lenders (see the paragraph immediately below for an exception). For this purpose, a lender is affiliated with another lender if any of the following applies:

- The lenders are under the ownership or control of the same entity or individuals
- The lenders are wholly or partly owned subsidiaries of the same parent company
- The directors, trustees, or general partners, or individuals exercising similar functions, of one of the lenders constitute a majority of the persons holding similar positions with the other lender

Iowa Code Sections 261F.1(9) and 261F.6(1)(b)

If we initially meet the preferred lender list requirement of including a minimum of three unaffiliated lenders, we may be later notified that one or more of those lenders has decided to discontinue making loans to our students and parents. The USDE and the Iowa Attorney General will take such circumstances, over which we have no control, into consideration in determining our compliance with the requirement that we maintain at least three unaffiliated lenders on our preferred lender list.

U.S. Department of Education Dear Colleague Letter GEN-08-06

A PLL will not include lenders that have offered, or have offered in response to our solicitation, financial or other benefits to the institution in exchange for inclusion on the PLL, or a promise that the institution or its students will send a certain number of loan applications to the lender.

Iowa Code Sections 261F.6(1)(c)

Our financial aid office will not use a PLL to do any of the following:

- Require a prospective borrower to use a lender on our PLL
- Deny or otherwise impede a borrower's choice of lender
- Assign a first-time borrower's loan to a particular lender through award packaging or other methods
- Refuse to certify a loan or cause unnecessary certification delays for a borrower who selects a lender that does not appear on our PLL

Iowa Code Sections 261F.6(1)(a) and 261F.6(2)(c), (d), and (e); 34 CFR 601.10(d)(1)(iii); 34 CFR 601.10(d)(5); 34 CFR 601.21(c)(4)

Preferred Lender List Alternatives

Permissible Activities

The institution's financial aid office is not required to maintain a preferred lender list for education loans, and is permitted to provide no information to education loan borrowers about lenders.

Other acceptable alternatives to a preferred lender list appear below. These alternatives are not considered a preferred lender list or preferred lending arrangement:

- If the institution desires to compile a preferred lender list but is unable to identify at least three unaffiliated lenders that will make loans to its students or parents sufficient to meet the requirements of a preferred lender list, we may provide the names of all of the lenders that have indicated that they would provide loans to our students and their parents. In providing this information, we will make it clear that we do not endorse the lenders, and provide a clear statement that the borrower may choose to use any lender that will make loans to the borrower for attendance at this institution.

- We may provide a neutral, comprehensive list of lenders that have made loans to our students or parents in the past three to five years (or some other period) and that have indicated that they would continue to make loans to our students. We may provide contact information for the lender, and comparative information about the terms and conditions of loans offered by the lender. We will not provide any additional information about the lender, including, for example, the percentage of loans made to our students by a particular lender. We will make it clear that we do not endorse the lenders, and that the borrower can choose to use any lender that will make loans to the borrower for attendance at this institution.
- We may refer a prospective private education loan borrower to a Web site developed by a third party that contains a neutral, comprehensive list of private education lenders and the loan products each lender offers. We will ensure that the list provided on such a Web site is broad in scope, does not endorse or recommend any of the lenders on the list and the lenders on the list do not either pay the third party who maintains the Web site for placement on the list or pay the third party a fee based on any loan volume generated.
