

APPENDIX

Sample BIOLA M.A. ICS program structure for EMMAUS Bachelor of Science in Intercultural Studies with Concentration in Community Development *

Core Courses (15 credits)

- ISCL 742 History of the World Christian Movement **
- ISCL 750 Issues in Contextualization/Cross-cultural Theology OR
- ISCL 751 Theology of Mission

Choose one of the following:

- ISAN 761 Culture and Transformation
- ISCL 711 Dynamics of the Religious Experience

Choose one of the following:

- ISAN 523 Ethnographic Research Methods
- ISAN 561 Economic Anthropology
- ISAN 751 Social Anthropology
- ISCL 560 Urban Research and Study

Choose one of the following:

- ISCL 520 Interpersonal and Intercultural Adjustment
- ISCL 709 Intercultural Communication **

Bible/Theology (6 credits)

- Bible/Theology elective
- Bible/Theology elective

Community Development Concentration (18 credits) Students who have not previously taken a course in cultural anthropology will be required to take ISAN 507 as a required elective.

- Any 500, 600, or 700 level Elective **
- Any 500, 600, or 700 level Elective
- ISAN 577 Project Evaluation and Assessment
- ISAN 561 Economic Anthropology
- ISAN 571 Introduction to International Development
- ISAN 575 Community Development Models

39 credits - 9 units for work completed at Emmaus (above) =

Total 30 units

* There are multiple concentrations for the M.A. ICS.

For more information, check out Biola's web page at <http://cook.biola.edu/programs/missions-intercultural/ma-intercultural-studies/>